

Financial Business Analyst, Technology, Financial Services (Brussels)

Where will you work?

Based in Brussels, this innovative company is a global player and market leader in the transactional services industry. They provide high-tech services, consulting, system integration and managed operations to deliver business outcomes globally.

Within this multinational organization, the service department “Billing – Credit & Collections” is looking for a Financial Business Analyst who has an analytical mindset and dares to think out-of-the-box.

What will you do?

As a Financial Business Analyst, you will be in charge of translating customer needs into our billing systems. This needs to be done in a creative, efficient and qualitative manner in order to find solutions that will ensure optimal “Time To Market” implementation of new products, services and price adjustments.

To be more specific:

- From within the Billing department you will work closely together with the other financial, business and IT team.
- You will be able to perform complex analyses on Billing – Credit & Collections and you know how to translate this into concise management reporting.
- You have the perfect skills setting to propose improvements in both billing and collecting process which will could have short and long-term positive impact on their financial results.
- You will perform analyses and controls within the Order To Cash process to ensure that all the products & services are fully and correctly billed.
- You will follow up very specific Billing – Credit & Collection projects that are not necessarily part of the standard processes and this in the context of revenue assurance and cash collection.

You?

We are betting you are highly motivated, but it's also important that:

- You're recently graduated and obtained a master's degree in economics
- You have an analytical mindset
- You get energy from achieving results and solving problems
- You're able to work on own initiative and stick to tight deadlines - Structure and Organization is your middle name

- You are a strong team player,
- You dare to think out-of-the-box and you can keep the helicopter view at the same time
- You are fluent in French or Dutch and English

What's in it for you?

Working at this challenging company is above all choosing an exciting job! On top of that:

- They offer a large number of training hours and an open career path.
- You'll also find a very good work-life balance.
- An attractive salary and interesting extra-legal benefits, with this they also provide an annual bonus, a Sodexo card (equivalent meal vouchers), ecocheques and a large insurance package (hospitalization, pension, disability, death).
- The office is easily accessible by public transport and flexible hours system exists.

Are you up for the challenge?

Please send your CV to Crossbridge : info@crossbridge.be.