Regional Supply Chain Planner, Medical Devices (Brussels)

Company

The company is a leading manufacturer of medical and surgical products, including gloves, surgical apparel and fluid management products. In addition, the company operates the nation's largest network of radiopharmacies that dispense products to aid in the early diagnosis and treatment of disease.

Function

- Provide analytical and technical Supply Chain support for your assigned product portfolio. While working independently, performs Supply Chain activities, which may include demand planning, supply planning, and inventory management. Job overview – this job exists to…
- Provide analytical, data gathering and planning support for an assigned product group
- Perform data gathering and analysis activities in selected areas, such as supply planning, demand planning, life cycle management, customer inventory management and allocation •
- Supply Chain Analysts will work independently, expected to develop preliminary recommendations and manage projects or product launches.

Responsabilities

- Demand planning
- Maintain updated historic demand information and promotional plans
- Build mth. product volume forecasts based on historical demand information (or statistical model) & Marketing intelligence (Phase in, phase out, future promotional plans) & product mix forecasts based on historical mix information and marketing information.
- Load and maintain product forecasts in the Planning System
- Work closely with Supply Chain Manager to prepare Demand S&OP (Sales&Operations) meetings. Supply planning
- Target setting: Support inventory target setting based on demand and variability
- Production planning: with plant, understand impact of supply situation on inventory and service levels
- Capacity planning: support capacity analysis with FG inventory & service implications
- Participate/lead in weekly manufacturing plan meetings and raise issues
- Works closely with Supply Chain Manager in Supply S&OP meetings. SC Alignment
- Support global allocation policy definition with analyses as required and support analysis of exceptions
- Work closely with Supply Chain Manager to prepare for SC Alignment meetings (Executive S&OP meetings)

Profile

- MS/BA degree or equivalent industry experience is required; MBA is a plus.
- Supply Chain Sr. Analysts must have a minimum of 2~3 years industry or consulting experience in Supply Chain management.
- Previous data analysis, demand and supply planning experience is required; system knowledge, IM skills, distribution and/or inventory management are helpful. Other skills and abilities:
- Demonstrated ability to manage time against multiple projects and priorities, and have strong data analysis, problem solving, and decision-making ability.
- Must be able to work effectively in a team environment, demonstrate strong verbal and written communication skills and conducting presentations.
- Demonstrated ability to lead small to large projects and teams.
- Must have a high level of personal initiative and ability to function autonomously with a strong sense of urgency, self-confidence, and comfort with new and rapidly changing situations and environments.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Applications (Excel, Access, PowerPoint) is required; and Supply Chain systems experience, •
- ERP (JD Edwards / SAP) and SQL is a plus.

Are you up for the challenge?

Apply today by sending your motivation and CV to Sylvie De Bruyckere, sylvie@crossbridge.be